

2014 National Poison Prevention Week Tweets and Posts

Please Use #NPPW after all tweets

Healthcare Providers

Thank you to all of the amazing nurses, doctors, and pharmacists at poison centers across the nation who work every day to keep us safe. Poison Help. 1-800-222-1222. [link to map of poison centers] <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/poison-centers/index.html>

When doctors and nurses need help treating poisonings, they call their poison center experts. Free, confidential, expert medical advice, available 24/7/365. Call the Poison Help line. 1-800-222.1222. <http://www.poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/>

When you call Poison Help, you're calling trained toxicologists, nurses, pharmacists, and doctors. Ask the experts at 1-800-222-1222. <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/the-poison-help-line/index.html>

Parents

Your kids are fast, but the Poison Help line can help you keep up. Program 1-800-222-1222 into your phone to get free help from medical professionals when you need it most. Watch this video to learn more. [link to video] <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/resources/videos/making-connections/index.html>

Did you know that the Poison Help line receives 500,000 calls from parents and caregivers every year? That's one call per minute every day. Learn more. [link to video] <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/resources/videos/making-connections/index.html>

Over 50% of calls to poison centers involve children 6 and younger. Keep medicines out of reach and household cleaners in locked cabinets. <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/what-can-you-do/poison-proof-your-home/index.html>

Do you have questions? Not sure if it's an emergency? When in doubt, check it out. Call Poison Help at 1-800-222-1222. <http://www.poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/>

Learn what you can do to protect your family from poisonings. <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/what-can-you-do/index.html>

Keep your home safe and be prepared. Request free Poison Help magnets and stickers and place them near your phones. Poison Help 1-800-222-1222

http://www.ask.hrsa.gov/results\_materials.cfm?type=poisoncontrol&searchterm=none&startlist=1&displaymax=all&subset=none

Older Adults

Poison centers aren't just for kids. Most deaths from poisonings happen to adults. Get the facts. Poison Help 1-800-222-1222 [link to infographic]

<http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/resources/materials/infographic.html>

Be aware of the dangers prescription drugs can pose. Never change your dose without talking to your doctor first. See the Safe Medicine Use for Older Adults and Caregivers Brochure.

<http://www.poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/uploads/files/resources/safemedicineusetips.pdf>

Ever wonder who takes your call when you dial Poison Help @ 1-800-222-1222? A team of specially trained nurses, pharmacists, and doctors. Program the toll-free national hotline into your phone. <http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/the-poison-help-line/index.html>

Caregivers

Caregivers need dependable resources that they can trust. Learn more about one of these: the Poison Help line. [link to video]

<http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/resources/videos/making-connections/index.html>

When you have questions about your loved one's medication, where can you turn for answers? The Poison Help line. Program 1-800-222-1222 into your phone to get free medication safety information from medical professionals 24/7. Check out this short video to learn more about the Poison Help line. [link to video]

<http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/resources/videos/making-connections/index.html>

Generic

When accidents happen, every second counts. Watch this video to learn why you should program the Poison Help line number into your phone. [link to video]

<http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/es/resources/videos/making-connections/index.html>

Worried that you took the wrong dose of medication? Diaper rash cream in your child's eyes? Call the Poison Help line, (1-800-222-1222). Medical professionals at your poison center answer calls 24 hours a day. Find out more. [link to video]

<http://poisonhelp.hrsa.gov/resources/videos/making-connections/index.html>

Don't waste time searching for poison advice online. Stop Searching. Just Call. Poison Help 1-800-222-1222.

Poison Prevention Week is March 16-22, 2014! Program the Poison Help line 1-800-222-1222 into your home and cell phones. www.PoisonHelp.hrsa.gov.

You can call the Poison Help Line at 1-800-222-1222 even if it's NOT an emergency. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. ~ Benjamin Franklin

Get free and confidential Poison Help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Program 1-800-222-1222 into your phone.

An internet search gives you quantity. We give you quality, expert Poison Help @ 1-800-222-1222.